

My Visit to Beechenhill Farm

A clear and friendly guide to visiting Beechenhill Farm

I may meet....

Alex and Rob Gray and Sue and Terry Prince who all live
At Beechenhill Farm .

(There may be other people visiting Beechenhill Farm on holiday.)

hens

Hatty dog

goats

sheep

cows

I can look at the animals but should not touch them unless Farmer Terry says I can.
After being outside on the farm I must wash my hands.

I may hear

- *The milking machine
- *The tractor
- *The milk lorry
- *The dustbin lorry
- *Hens
- *Cars
- *The wind
- *Birds singing
- *Sheep
- *Cows
- *The dog
- *Children

I may smell unusual smells

- *Cow poo
- *Wood smoke
- *Grass mowing
- *Muck spreading
- *Flowers
- *Fresh bread

I can watch milking

I can ask Terry the farmer if I can watch the milking. The milking parlour is a noisy place, I may get splashed and my boots may get dirty. There is a hose to clean my boots.

Afterwards I must wash my hands

Things to do at Beechenhill Farm

There are two grass sledges. I can sledge down the grass hill. it is quite fast and good fun. Sometimes there is cow poo on the grass. There are helmets to wear. Afterwards I should wash my hands.

I can ask at the Farmhouse
If I'd like to collect the eggs.

Hatty the dog likes to chase the ball. I can throw the ball.
When I have finished
I can say "Hatty, no more."

Afterwards I should wash my hands.

I may enjoy

- *Listening to the sound of the log fire crackling
- *Tasting a lovely homemade cake
- *Drinking fresh milk from the organic cows
- *Feeling the wind on my face while on the garden swing
- *Finding fossils in the limestone walls
- *Flying a kite in the field
- *Seeing the twinkling stars in the dark night sky
